

Are you an allied health professional consulting in a language other than English?

Brisbane South PHN is committed to supporting the needs of our Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) communities. We have developed a directory of allied health professionals who have identified as being able to speak and consult in languages other than English. This resource is available on our website.

If you are interested in being listed as a part of the Brisbane South PHN directory, please fill out the information below:

Name
Profession
Practice name
Practice/s address
Other language/s you consult in?
Phone
Email
Do you agree for this information be listed on Brisbane South PHN's online directory <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No

Please forward a completed copy to Eden Malama at refugeehealth@bsphn.org.au or fax to Brisbane South PHN on 07 3864 7599.

Please be aware that:

- any personal information published on the internet will be fully accessible to anyone with internet access
- the Brisbane South PHN website is protected by copyright, however once information has been published on the internet Brisbane South PHN has no control over subsequent use and disclosure
- the onus of providing up-to-date information, and notifying that your information on our website needs to be updated, is placed with you.

Brisbane South PHN is committed to ensuring that your personal and health information is handled in accordance with Australian privacy laws. All Brisbane South PHN employees are bound by the legal requirements of the Australian Privacy Principles from the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012.