

RECOGNISE RESPOND REFER

AN INTEGRATED PRIMARY HEALTH CARE RESPONSE TO DOMESTIC AND FAMILY VIOLENCE

WHOLE OF PRACTICE TRAINING 1 hour

RECOGNISE

How to identify domestic and family violence presentations within your primary health care role

RESPOND

How to respond to disclosures of DFV and support your patient to access safety and mitigate risk

REFER

Who can we trust to refer our patients to and how can we engage with specialist safety responses within the community?

The DFV Local Link is part of Brisbane South PHN's Recognise, Respond, Refer (RRR) Program, which supports primary care to enhance service responses to people experiencing DFV. This service is supported by funding from the Australian Government through Brisbane South PHN.

DOMESTIC AND FAMILY VIOLENCE TRAINING

DFV has widespread and significant impacts within our communities

This training will:

Provide you with greater confidence to recognise and respond to disclosures and refer to specialist services.

Provide you with strategies to engage in "difficult" conversations including to sensitively enquire

Support you to connect with your Single Point-of-Referral; your DFV Local Link.

ABOUT YOUR TRAINER

Joanna Klieve-Longman has worked across a variety of roles within both the Domestic and Family Violence and the Health sectors, including involvement in DFV crisis response, court advocacy, embedded DFV specialist roles within child protection and QLD Health, and within clinical social work in hospital services.
